

Leo's Big Day at the Farm

A Coloring Adventure for leo

The car ride took forever, but I finally saw the big barn and gave Grandma a hug that squeezed all the air out of my tummy!

Grandma let me hold a warm egg from the chickens, and I had to be super careful like it was a bubble.

A cow with a big wet nose licked my hand! It felt like sandpaper and slime, and it made me do a big wiggle-giggle.

I found a soft kitty hiding in the hay, and my fingers turned purple from picking berries that tasted like sunshine.

The sun is going to sleep behind the hills, and I am heavy-tired but ready to see the big tractor tomorrow.
